The ASTD International Conference & Exposition is the premier event for workplace learning and development professionals. Held each spring, this event welcomes more than 8,000 participants from 70+ countries, and features more than 300 educational sessions, worldwide networking opportunities, plus a world-class EXPO with state-of-the-art solutions for workforce development professionals.

The ASTD 2014 International Conference & Exposition will be held in Washington, D.C., May 4-7, 2014. Preconference certificate programs will take place May 1-2, and preconference workshops will take place on May 3.
